About the New Digital Health Association

The Digital Health Association, now home to the Digital Health Awards, is a new membership organization for professionals and organizations that work in all digital health fields. The association is part of the Health Information Resource CenterSM, a national clearinghouse for professionals who work in consumer health markets. The HIRC also organizes the National Health Information Awards (healthawards.com), the largest consumer health awards program of its kind. For more information about the new Digital Health Association, please contact Patricia Henze, executive director: phenze@healthawards.com • 800-828-8225.
